Dedication

Every school has certain faculty members who stand out in their field more than others. This year's annual is dedicated to such a teacher. A teacher who has devoted over 20 years of her life to teaching students at F. V. H. S. It is to such a teacher who has made an indelible impression on the minds and lives of the students that we proudly dedicate this year's annual to MISS ELEANOR BELL.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent's Message

To The Senior Class of 1967,

Year after year, I have watched young men and women graduate from Fort Valley High School and move on to an adventure full of excitement and new joys and sorrows. In this book, you are looking backward before moving ahead with hope and courage.

I speak for all of your teachers and friends when I say that the future will be bright if you build on the finest you have been taught. With confidence in the truths you have learned add accomplishment to your life. Always apply to each new task all of the industry and determination of which you are capable.

Sincerely,

Ernest R. Anderson

Guidance

Fort Valley High School has a full-time guidance counselor, Coach Albert Radford, whose services include personal and group conferences with students desiring educational and/or vocational information. Any student in high school, teacher, or parent may use any service or materials available in the counseling office—from current college catalogs to special-interest and intellectual tests. The counselor provides time to give any student an interpretation of his scores on standard tests and will assist him in choosing a college and in making applications concerning continued study or employment.

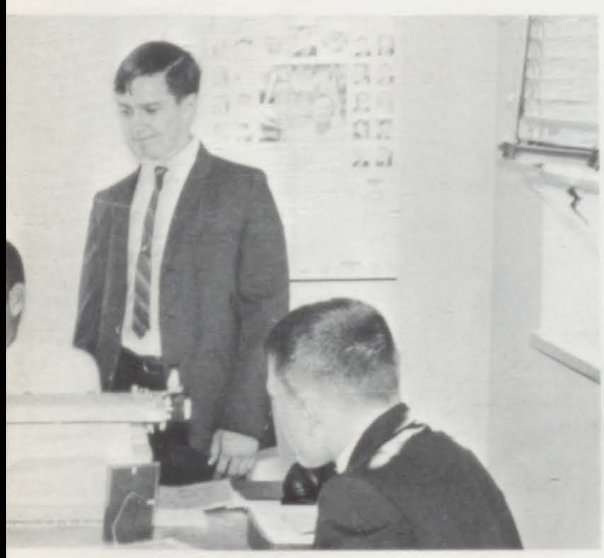

Mr. Radford offers advice to interested students.

D.C.T.

D. C. T. at Fort Valley High is under the supervision of Mr. Sims. Students learn the basic fundamentals needed in order to land and keep a job upon graduation. Classes in the morning and work in the afternoon provide training which is needed for a future vocation to those students enrolled in this course.
